

YourTV

A product pitch by Arnaldo De La Cruz

The Problem

Billions of people all over the world watch television.

Yet,

Have you ever finished watching a television show and thought to yourself “I wish there was a place I could talk about this with other people?”

Your Solution

Well now there can be. Introducing a “social media like website” (YourTV) for all types of television fans to add log shows, rate them, write reviews, post them to their profiles, and join fandoms of these shows. This website will allow for easier connections and conversations within communities of fans for all different series.

Website Type

- This would mostly be a media and entertainment website that serves as a social media platform.

Software Development Process

What software development process will you use?

- Waterfall, Agile, or Scrum?
- Why is this the best fit for your project goals and timeline?
